My dear Mr. Balasundram Iyer,

I beg to inform you that at a Durbar held in the Jaganmohan Palace on the 24th June last in connection with the marriage of H. H. the Yuvaraja, H. H. the Maharaja was pleased to present me with a Khillat consisting of a pair of Shawls and a waist cloth. Some time previous to this H. H. the Maharaja was graciously to present me with a gold watch with an inscription.

You are aware that being a Civil Officer I am not permitted to accept such presents without the sanction of the British Govt. I should like to know whether the necessary sanction could be obtained in these cases. If not, I shall be greatly obliged if you will be good enough to obtain the same. The articles in question will remain unused in my custody until Govt. orders are received.

I remain,

Yours truly

Sir,

I am directed to state that on the occasion of the marriage of the Yuvaraja which took place on the 17th June 1910, Indian Officers of the State above a certain rank and a number of private gentlemen were given Khillats in the shape of Shawls and laced cloth.

2. The question how the several officers of the Government of India lent to this State should be treated in this connection was considered and in accordance with the wishes of His Highness the Maharaja it was decided that the officers in question should be treated in the same way as the Durbar's own officers. The officers in question represented both before and after the decision was arrived at that as they were subject to the disciplinary rules which apply to officers of the Government of India in active service, such presents could not be accepted by them without the previous sanction of the Government of India being obtained. As however there was no time for such sanction being obtained and as the absolute refusal of the officers to receive the presents would have been derogatory to the Durbar, it was settled ~~[with the unofficial approval of the Hon'ble the Resident]~~ that they should receive the Khillat subject to the Government of India according their permission which would be applied for by the Durbar.

3. A list of lent officers together with a description of the nature and approximate value of the articles given as Khillat is annexed hereto.

4. As Khillats are given to all officers of the Durbar of corresponding rank to celebrate an auspicious event in the Ruling Family, His Highness the Maharaja would prefer not to have to make a distinction between the two classes of his officers, viz., those appointed by himself and those obtained from the British Ser-

Moreover the acceptance by an Indian [illegible] officer ~~of Khillat~~ Of Khillat offered to him along with all officers of the Durbar of corresponding rank and in accordance with established custom does not seem to be inconsistent with the spirit of the Rules regarding the acceptance of presents by public servants contained in Circular Order No.1299-G, dated the 20th June 1876 of the Government of India in the Foreign Department. Under these circumstances, the Durbar request that the officers concerned may be permitted to keep the Khillat, the non-acceptance of which by one of the Durbar's own officers would be regarded as an act of disrespect. ~~But in case the Government of India are not willing to accord such permission, the Durbar would withdraw the Khillats.~~

5. I am to make a similar request i regard to Khillats presented to a few officers on active service in Coorg and in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalor a list of whom is also appended.
